APSA PUBLICATIONS, 1956-1975

APSA was established as the Australian Political Studies Association in 1956. Its bulletin was APSA News which ran for ten years, from 1956 to 1965. An index was issued to v. 1-3, 1956 - Dec. 1958.

At its Annual Conference, in August 1965, the Association changed its name to the Australasian Political Studies Association, and decided to produce a new journal. Politics began with vol. I, No. 1 in May 1966 and has since appeared twice yearly in May and November. An index to the first three years of Politics has been incorporated into the present index.

The first Annual APSA Conference was held in 1957 and papers for each meeting have been published.

From v. I, no.2 to v. X, no. 2 of Politics a feature by Henry Mayer commenting on books, pamphlets, journals, etc. has appeared in every issue except v. VI, no. 2 and v. VIII, no. 1. It was variously entitled 'Books in brief', 'Australiana', 'Book notes', 'Books received' and 'Books: noted, received'. Some of the publications mentioned are indexed in the Book Review section, but the increase in the number of items noted has made this impracticable for volumes IX and X.

The feature has usually been divided into "Australian" and "overseas". A systematic check of the Australian section will yield a reasonably comprehensive coverage of Australian politics, especially useful for its emphasis on minority journals, newsletters and pamphlets.

First Meeting, 1955-1956

1955 was designated as the "Year of the Negro" by the National Negro College Fund. The National Negro College Fund was formed in 1954, and its purpose was to provide financial aid to Negro college students. The fund was organized by a group of Negro leaders, including Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and Dr. C. Vann Woodward.
